Parker Miller of the law firm Beasley, Allen, Crow, Methvin, Portis & Miles, P.C., and Clay Phillips of the Phillips Law Firm. I am making this statement on my own free will, am of sound mind and am not under the influence of duress or any substance which would affect my ability to testify truthfully and accurately.

2. My son is the individual referred to in this matter as "CV1", and he is currently eighteen (18) years old and will turn nineteen (19) in November of this year. At the time that this lawsuit was filed, "CV1" was a resident of Alabama and was a minor child.

3. However, earlier this year around February or March of 2024, my son decided to move to Alaska to start his life over. I can confirm that he now has a physical address in Alaska, he receives his mail in Alaska, he is employed in Alaska, and he has an Alaskan driver's license.

4. My son has told me that he intends that Alaska be his permanent home, and that he does not wish to live in Alabama anymore.

5. I am supportive of his choice to move, and I am also supportive of his decision to carry on as the named "Plaintiff" in this matter.

6. To the best of my knowledge, "CV1" does not have any mental or psychological issues that prevent him from continuing on as the party Plaintiff in this case, along with the assistance of counsel.
